Prefacio

Estimado estudiante, el libro que en este momento tienes en tus manos fue elaborado pensando en ti, en tus necesidades e inquietudes, como un instrumento que te apoye ahora que estudias el bachillerato. En sus páginas encontrarás contenidos y actividades que son fundamentales para que paso a paso, puedas ir alcanzando las metas que esta asignatura te propone para este semestre.

A ti te toca, ahora, sacarle el mayor provecho a este libro, que es fruto del esfuerzo de un grupo de maestros y especialistas. Si lo haces tu amigo, lo aprovechas al máximo y lo combinas con el apoyo de tu maestro y de los demás recursos didácticos que están a tu alcance, seguramente irás ampliando más tus competencias y habilidades para construir un mejor futuro para ti y contribuir al desarrollo de tu comunidad, de tu estado y de nuestro México.

Te deseamos el mayor de los éxitos en esta importante etapa de tu formación: el bachillerato.

Presentación general

El conocimiento de una lengua extranjera, en este caso el inglés, es más útil de lo que en ocasiones se reconoce. Distintas situaciones, como la migración de los pueblos, el contacto entre diferentes culturas originarias de un mismo país o de países fronterizos han originado la necesidad de comunicarse en una lengua distinta a la propia.

Actualmente, la interacción entre países en el ámbito político, económico y cultural, así como la circulación de información, ha generado la necesidad de manejar dos lenguas o más. México no es ajeno a esta situación aunque en ocasiones se tenga la imagen de que es un país monolingüe.

Existen varios procesos para desarrollar el manejo de otra lengua. Una primera manera de adquirir el lenguaje se refiere a un proceso inconsciente en el que la necesidad de la comunicación y la exposición constante a una lengua determinada permite que una persona logre comunicarse en esa lengua; así sucede con personas que emigran a otro país y adquieren el idioma de manera similar a como lo hicieron con su lengua materna. El aprendizaje, por su parte, se refiere al estudio consciente de la lengua meta, generalmente con menor tiempo de exposición a ella y en ambientes formales, como la escuela. Éste seguramente es tu caso.

La propuesta de este libro es la enseñanza de la lengua basada en un enfoque comunicativo que tiene como objetivo desarrollar las competencias de comunicación, entendidas como la capacidad de saber qué decir, a quién y cómo decirlo de manera apropiada en cualquier situación dada. Es importante resaltar que este libro te permitirá integrar aprendizajes de distintas áreas, así como desarrollar tus competencias comunicativas para aplicarlas en tu vida diaria y en tu contexto de manera vivencial.

La asignatura Lengua Adicional al Español II se ubica en el segundo semestre del plan de estudio de nivel educativo de bachillerato general que ha establecido la Secretaría de Educación Pública (SEP) y tiene como antecedente la asignatura Lengua Adicional al Español I y la asignatura de Lengua Adicional al Español III y IV de la educación básica (Secundaria). A la vez, es previa a Lengua Adicional al Español III y IV. En esta asignatura se promueve además la vinculación con las otras asignaturas del mismo periodo: Taller de Lectura y Redacción II e Informática II. Finalmente, te servirá como valiosa herramienta de comunicación en tu contexto escolar de manera general.

¿Qué es una competencia?

En el contexto educativo una competencia se define como “la integración de habilidades, conocimientos y actitudes en un contexto específico” (Acuerdo 442, Secretaría de Educación Pública, 2008).

En el bachillerato general se busca consolidar y diversificar los aprendizajes y desempeños, ampliando y profundizando el desarrollo de competencias relacionadas con el campo disciplinar de la Comunicación que promueve la asignatura Lengua Adicional al Español II. Por ello se buscará el desarrollo de las 11 competencias genéricas y se pondrá énfasis particular en las que a continuación se resaltan:

1. Se conoce y valora a sí mismo y aborda problemas y retos teniendo en cuenta los objetivos que persigue.
2. Es sensible al arte y participa en la apreciación e interpretación de sus expresiones en distintos géneros.
3. Elige y practica estilos de vida saludables.
4. Escucha, interpreta y emite mensajes pertinentes en distintos contextos mediante la utilización de medios, códigos y herramientas apropiados.
5. Desarrolla innovaciones y propone soluciones a problemas a partir de métodos establecidos
6. Sustenta una postura personal sobre temas de interés y relevancia general, considerando otros puntos de vista de manera crítica y reflexiva.
7. Aprende por iniciativa e interés propio a lo largo de la vida.
8. Participa y colabora de manera efectiva en equipos diversos.
9. Participa con una conciencia cívica y ética en la vida de su comunidad, región, México y el mundo.
10. Mantiene una actitud respetuosa hacia la interculturalidad y la diversidad de creencias, valores, ideas y prácticas sociales.
11. Contribuye al desarrollo sustentable de manera crítica, con acciones responsables.

Las competencias disciplinares básicas se enunciarán al principio de cada bloque.

¿Cómo está estructurado este libro?

Inicio del bloque

Cada bloque comienza con el título del mismo y una breve introducción en donde indica qué es lo que trata y cómo vas a trabajar.

Posteriormente se enuncian las competencias genéricas a desarrollar con sus respectivos atributos y las competencias disciplinares básicas. Las competencias marcan el camino de lo que vas a aprender y los resultados a obtener.

Asimismo, se presenta el propósito del bloque, es decir, las metas y la finalidad del mismo.

Para saber qué tanto sabes del tema y cuáles son las áreas por mejorar, se propone una evaluación diagnóstica. Esto además te permitirá identificar tu nivel en las competencias a desarrollar.

Block I

Comparing people, objects and places

Introduction

In Block I you will learn to compare people considering mood, physical, ethical and cultural characteristics. You will also learn to compare objects and places considering physical characteristics. In order to do this you will use adjectives and the proper grammatical structures.

You will find several activities to practice what you learn. Once you finish an activity, check your results in the Answer Key. You will also elaborate some products in which you will apply your knowledge. Finally, you will have the chance to evaluate your achievement and express your personal conclusions.

What competences will you develop?

What do you know? (Previous knowledge and competencies)

Do you remember what nouns are? A noun names people, places, things and ideas which you can compare considering different aspects and characteristics. Read the following text and underline all the nouns.

¿Recuerdas qué es un sustantivo? El sustantivo "nombra" a personas, cosas e ideas que puedes comparar tomando en cuenta distintos aspectos y características. Lee el siguiente texto y subraya todos los sustantivos.

Dear diary:

I am having fun in Guanajuato. I have new friends, Alicia is the nicest girl in our group and Pedro is the funniest. He makes me laugh every day with his jokes. Guanajuato is a beautiful colonial city. The shoes and jackets are very cheap. I enjoy walking down the streets of Guanajuato while listening to the studentina. The studentina plays cheerful music. One of the things I want to see is the Museum of the Mummies. This museum is one of the most interesting museums in the world and probably the scariest of them all!

In order to make comparisons between people, things and places you should be able to describe them. Think about your best friend, your favorite animal and the city or town where you live and write three sentences to describe them.

Para hacer comparaciones entre personas, objetos y lugares primero debes poder describirlos. Piensa en tu mejor amigo o amiga, en tu animal favorito y en la ciudad en donde vives y escribe tres oraciones para describirlos.

My best friend	1. 2. 3.
My favorite animal	1. 2. 3.
My town/city	1. 2. 3.

Look at the pictures above. Read the next questions and share your answers with your classmates.

Observa las imágenes. Contesta las siguientes preguntas y comparte tus respuestas con tus compañeros.

- How are the people in the pictures like?
- What are these people doing?
- What are some characteristics of a city?
- What are some benefits of living in the country?

Use the Answer Key to check your answers. Were you correct? Did you make any mistakes? Which part was easy and which was difficult? Why? Was it easy to describe the pictures and to talk about them? Discuss your results with your teacher. It will be useful to focus on your strengths and opportunities.

Verifica tus respuestas en la Clave de Respuestas. ¿Fueron correctas? ¿Cometiste algunos errores? ¿Qué parte fue fácil? ¿Cuál fue difícil? ¿Fue fácil describir las imágenes y hablar acerca de ellas? Comenta tus resultados con tu profesor. Le servirá para concentrarte en tus fortalezas y oportunidades.

Desarrollo del bloque

Aquí se encuentra el contenido general y disciplinar para acercarte activamente al uso del inglés como lengua adicional. Los temas que se presentan están basados en situaciones reales y vinculadas a tu contexto.

A lo largo del bloque se intercalan estrategias de aprendizaje y evaluación, tales como revisión de tablas gramaticales, resolución de ejercicios, análisis e interpretación de textos, interpretación de roles, reflexión personal, elaboración de conclusiones, discusión en grupo, trabajo en equipo, presentaciones orales, entre otras. Seguramente aprenderás nuevas palabras que te ayudarán a ampliar tu vocabulario. Anota su significado en el Glosario que encontrarás al final del bloque. También contarás con algunos apoyos para reforzar tu aprendizaje, como:

Block 1 Comparing people, objects and places

Now write comparative sentences about your classmates using those adjectives (check Grammar Box 2: The comparative: using -er and more).
Ahora escribe oraciones comparando a tus compañeros, usando esos adjetivos (revisa la Tabla Gramatical 2).

Describe using adjectives in positive degree Examples: Mario is quiet. Luis is loud.	Compare Example: Luis is louder than Mario.

Look at the chart that illustrates different moods.
Observa la tabla que ilustra diferentes estados de ánimo.

Moods: emotional state, humor, disposition.
lovely	excited	sad	tired	tense
exhausted	depressed	joyful	lively	happy

Activity 3
Work in pairs and talk about how you felt in the following situations.
Platica con un compañero sobre cómo te sentiste en las siguientes situaciones.

- A very difficult exam.
- Your last birthday.
- When your favorite soccer team won.
- After doing a lot of exercise.

Interesting facts
La-lia is the birthplace of chess. The original word for "chess" is the Sanskrit chaturanga, meaning "four members of an army"—which were mostly likely elephants, horses, chariots, and foot soldiers.

Cierre del bloque

Al terminar cada bloque, se presenta la evaluación final en forma de una actividad integradora de las cuatro habilidades comunicativas (comprensión auditiva y de lectura, producción oral y escrita) donde vas a aplicar tus aprendizajes y poner en juego tus competencias. También, hallarás una rúbrica para que evalúes la actividad integradora y un formato para que hagas una autoevaluación de tu nivel de avance en el aprendizaje de los contenidos.

Finalmente, encontrarás una tabla para que registres el nivel de avance que lograste en el desarrollo de las competencias genéricas y disciplinares. Es importante que valores junto con tu profesor los avances que hayas registrado.

Los contenidos y las actividades se presentan de una manera atractiva y práctica. Aprovecha todas las actividades, contenidos y recursos, éstos te permitirán usar el Inglés cada vez mejor. Aprovecha a tu profesor y a tus compañeros, acércate a ellos, resuelvan dudas y aprendan juntos; date la oportunidad de compartir con ellos este viaje.

¿Cuál es el propósito de esta asignatura?

Al cursar la asignatura Lengua Adicional al Español II, desarrollarás las cuatro habilidades comunicativas de la lengua: comprensión auditiva y de lectura, producción oral y escrita. Tal como comenta Anahí Mastache¹, “Las competencias van más allá de las habilidades básicas o saber hacer, ya que implica saber actuar y reaccionar; es decir, que los estudiantes sepan qué hacer y cuándo”.

Por lo tanto, será muy importante que establezcas un vínculo entre el conocimiento que adquieres y la aplicación en tu vida cotidiana. Además, al aprender otra lengua fortalecerás tu identidad cultural y aprenderás a respetar la diversidad de creencias, valores, ideas y prácticas sociales en este mundo globalizado con un enfoque intercultural.

Dear diary.

I am having fun in Guanajuato. I have new friends, Alicia is the nicest girl in our group and Pedro is the funniest. He makes me laugh every day with his jokes. Guanajuato is a beautiful colonial city. The shoes and jackets are very cheap. I enjoy walking down the streets of Guanajuato while listening to the estudiantina. The estudiantina plays cheerful music. One of the things I want to see is the Museum of the Mummies. This museum is one of the most interesting museums in the world and probably the scariest of them all!

In order to make comparisons between people, things and places you should be able to describe them. Think about your best friend, your favorite animal and the city or town where you live and write three sentences to describe them.

Para hacer comparaciones entre personas, objetos y lugares primero debes poder describirlos. Piensa en tu mejor amigo o amiga, en tu animal favorito y en la ciudad en donde vives y escribe tres oraciones para describirlos.

My best friend	1. 2. 3.
My favorite animal	1. 2. 3.
My town/city	1. 2. 3.

Look at the pictures above. Read the next questions and share your answers with your classmates.

Observa las imágenes. Lee las siguientes preguntas y comparte tus respuestas con tus compañeros.

1. How are the people in the pictures like?
2. What are these people doing?
3. What are some characteristics of a city?
4. What are some benefits of living in the country?

Were you correct? Did you make any mistakes? Which part was easy and which was difficult? Why? Was it easy to describe the pictures and to talk about them? Discuss your results with your teacher. It will be useful to focus on your strengths and opportunities.

¿Fueron correctas? ¿Cometiste algunos errores? ¿Qué parte fue fácil? ¿Cuál fue difícil? ¿Fue fácil describir las imágenes y hablar acerca de ellas? Comenta tus resultados con tu profesor; te servirá para concentrarte en tus fortalezas y oportunidades.

Block I

Comparing people, objects and places

In addition, it is important to identify your level of proficiency in the competencies that you will develop in block I by answering the next questions. Check (X)

También es importante que identifiques cómo es tu desempeño actual en las competencias que desarrollarás en el bloque I. Para ello, contesta las siguientes preguntas marcando tu respuesta con una X.

	Siempre	A veces	Nunca
¿Aplicas distintas estrategias comunicativas según quienes sean tus interlocutores, el contexto en el que te encuentras y los objetivos que persigues?
¿Identificas las ideas clave en un texto o discurso oral e infieres conclusiones a partir de ellas?
¿Te comunicas en una segunda lengua en situaciones cotidianas?
¿Aportas puntos de vista con apertura y consideras los de otras personas de manera reflexiva?
¿Dialogas y aprendes de personas con distintos puntos de vista y tradiciones culturales mediante la ubicación de tus propias circunstancias en un contexto más amplio?

If you answered most of them with “always” then your level of proficiency is high. If you answered most of them with “sometimes” or “never” then you will have to work harder on the achievement of those competencies.

Si la mayoría de tus respuestas fueron “siempre” significa que tu desempeño actual es alto; si la mayoría fueron “a veces” o “nunca” significa que tienes que trabajar con más empeño para desarrollar esas competencias.

Let's begin

Adjectives are words used to describe people, objects and places. Adjectives go before the noun. Adjectives can express a degree of comparison: positive, comparative or superlative. A degree of comparison is used to give emphasis to something. In the next chart you can see examples of the three degrees of the adjectives.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
Rich Maria is rich.	- Richer - Maria is richer than Leticia.	Richest Maria is the richest person in the city.

Comparing people, objects and places

In Grammar Box 1 you will find information about adjectives.

Grammar Box 1
Adjectives
I don't like cold weather. Alejandro is a happy child. The young woman eats a fresh apple.		An adjective describes a noun. It modifies nouns. Adjectives give a different meaning to nouns.
The weather is cold .		Reminder. An adjective can also follow be ; the adjective describes the subject of the sentence.

To compare, we identify characteristics that could be similar or different from one person, object or place to another. We use positive adjectives to indicate simple quality of people, objects and places without comparison or relation to increase or diminution. We use the comparative adjectives for comparing two things and the superlative adjectives for comparing three or more things. A superlative is a grammatical descriptor that implies something surpasses everything else.

Surpasses: exceeds or beats.

Block I

Comparing people, objects and places

Use the pattern ...

adjective + -er than more + adjective + than less + adjective + than

...to compare two or more people, things or places. Grammar Box 2 shows grammatical rules, explanations and examples to make comparisons using adjectives and comparatives.

Grammar Box 2
The comparative: using -er, more, less
Francisco is older than Rafael. Health is more important than money. The beach is hotter than the forest.			When we use adjectives to compare two people, things or places, the adjectives have special forms. The use of –er or more is called the comparative form. Important: than follows the comparative form. • older than. • more important than.
	Positive Adjective	Comparative	Explanation	Examples
Adjectives with one syllable	old cheap hot	older cheaper hotter	Add –er to one-syllable adjectives. Spelling note: If an adjective ends in one vowel and one consonant, double the consonant: hot-hotter big-bigger fat-fatter .	Juan is older than Jorge. This shirt is cheaper than this jacket. Veracruz is hotter than Puebla.
Adjectives that end in –y	pretty healthy busy	prettier healthier busier	If an adjective ends in –y , change the y to –i and add –er .	Amanda is prettier than Patricia. Fruit is healthier than ice cream. Mexico City is busier than Guanajuato.
Adjectives with two or more syllables	intelligent famous interesting expensive polluted	more intelligent more interesting more expensive less famous less polluted	Use more in front of adjectives that have two or more syllables (except adjectives that end in –y). You can use less with many adjectives of two or more syllables. Less is usually not used with one-syllable adjectives.	My brother is more intelligent than yours. Javier “Chicharito” Hernández is less famous than Leo Messi. The book is more interesting than the movie. Chilaquiles are less expensive than meat. This market is more expensive than the other. Veracruz is less polluted than Mexico City.
Irregular comparative forms	good bad far	better worse farther/further	The comparative forms of good, bad and far are irregular.	My friend is better than that guy. Coffee is worse for your health than tea. The school is farther than the church.

Adjectives, positive, comparative and superlative

To compare objects you can use superlatives in addition to comparative adjectives. Remember that a superlative is a grammatical descriptor for adjectives that imply something surpasses everything else. Notice that the word the precedes the superlative. This can strengthen your tolerance and respect to diversity.

In Grammar Box 3 you will see the degrees of comparison.

Grammar Box 3
Degrees of comparison
The comparative (-er/more) compares two people, things or places. The superlative (-est/most) compares three or more people, things or places.

“As ... as”, “Not as ... as”

Sometimes we find objects, people or places that are similar or different in some way. We use “as ... as” to say that one person, object or place is equal in characteristics to another. We use “not as ... as” to say that two people, things or places are different in some characteristic. Study Grammar Box 4 to learn how to use these structures.

Grammar Box 4
As ... as, Not as ... as
	Explanation	Examples
As ... as Affirmative statements	Affirmative sentences compare people, things and places that are the same in some way.	Paula is as intelligent as Diego. This car is as expensive as the other. This school is as good as that one.
Not as ... as Negative statements	Negative sentences compare people, things and places that are different in some way.	My uncle is not as young as my father. Soda is not as nutritious as milk. Cancun is not as old as Puebla.

Block II

Relating important moments of the past

Introduction

In block II, you will learn to relate important moments of the past and the proper grammatical structures.

Simple past tense is used to express the idea that an action started and finished at a specific time in the past. It can also be used with a duration which starts and stops in the past or to describe a habit which stopped also in the past. The simple past can also be used to describe past facts or generalizations which are no longer true.

What competences will you develop?

Relating important moments of the past

What do you know? (Previous knowledge and competencies)

Look at the pictures and try to describe each one of them. What kind of actions are in the images?

Observa las imágenes y trata de describir cada una de ellas. ¿Qué tipo de acciones ves en las imágenes?

A verb asserts something about the subject of the sentence and expresses actions, events or states of being. It is perhaps the most important part of predicate of a sentence.

Identify and underline the verbs in the following box.

Un verbo afirma algo acerca del sujeto de una oración y expresa una acción, un evento o una condición. Es, probablemente, la parte más importante del predicado de la oración.

Identifica los verbos en el siguiente recuadro y subráyalos.

Verb To Be - Past tense

The verb “To Be” has two forms in the past tense: singular (was) and plural (were). Look at Grammar Box 1.

Grammar Box 1
To be
Subject	To be (paste tense)	Examples
I	was	I was happy.
You	were	You were very good.
He	was	He was the best friend.
She	was	She was late for work.
It	was	It was a sunny day.
We	were	We were at home.
You	were	You were on holiday.
They	were	They were happy with the result.

Affirmative Form

You	were	happy
subject	verb	adjective

The negative of “To Be” can be made by adding not after the verb (was or were). Look at the examples:

- I was not tired this morning.
- You were not crazy.
- He was not in the bathroom.
- They were not in Mexico City.

You can make negative contractions of the verb “To Be” in the past tense by joining the verb (was or were) and n’t (e.g. were not = weren’t). You don’t make a contraction of the subject and the verb (e.g. I was).

Look at the examples:

- She was not famous = she wasn’t famous.
- They were not friends = they weren’t friends.
- I was not angry = I wasn’t angry.

Interrogative Form: to create questions with “To Be”, you put the verb before the Subject. For example:

Were	you	happy?
verb	subject	adjective

In spoken english, we usually give short answers in response to questions. Look at the following example:

Was he from Japan? Yes, he was (from Japan).

The last part (from Japan) is not necessary. We use short answers to avoid repetition, when the meaning is clear.

For example:

- Was your sister sick last month? (interrogative)

Short answer: Yes, she was. (affirmative)

No, she was not = No, she wasn’t. (negative)

Regular and irregular verbs

English language uses both regular and irregular verbs. A regular verb is any verb whose conjugation follows the typical pattern of the language to which it belongs.

A verb whose conjugation follows a different pattern is called an irregular verb. In Grammar Box 2 you can observe the grammatical rules for both types of verbs.

Grammar Box 2
Regular and Irregular Verbs
Regular verbs Are formed by adding a “d” or “ed” to the end of the verb. Or changes a “y” to “ied”.	Infinitive play talk share prove try cry	Past played talked shared proved tried cried
Irregular verbs Changes their original pattern.	swim forget take	swam forgot took
Sometimes the verb changes completely.	buy	bought
Sometimes there is “half” a change.	sing	sang
Sometimes there is no change (the difference is in the pronunciation).	cut	cut

"Beto's day"

Track suit: pants, clothes for doing exercise.

Pursue: follow, persecute, chase.

Passersby: pedestrians, people walking down the street.

When I woke up this morning, I found my dog, Cacho, waiting for me. He wanted me to take him for a walk. I was too hungry, so first I had breakfast. I had a glass of milk and a piece of toast. Then I brushed my teeth and put on a track suit and a heavy coat because it was really cold outside. Cacho was already impatient.

We both went out and walked to the park near home. He ran and jumped and pursued some passersby. He also destroyed some pieces of furniture somebody left on the road. I sat on a bench all the time, wishing I could be in my warm bed.

When my hands were frozen, I decided it was time to go back to home. Cacho did not want to, but I pulled hard and I managed to take him back. When we arrived at the front door, I realized I didn't have my keys with me, so we stayed out in the cold for more than an hour. Cacho was happy but I was late for work!

Cierre del bloque II

Reflexiona sobre lo aprendido

Para valorar el nivel de avance que has logrado en el bloque II es importante que completes la siguiente tabla de manera consciente y honesta. Pon una X en la casilla correspondiente.

Interpretación del nivel de avance:

- 100 - 90% = Lo logré de manera independiente
- 89 - 70% = Requerí apoyo para construir el aprendizaje
- 69 - 50% = Fue difícil el proceso de aprendizaje y sólo lo logré parcialmente
- 49% o menos = No logré el aprendizaje.

Block III

Following instructions and understanding rules

Introduction

In block III, you will learn to follow instructions as well as understand rules. In English, there are some words that are used to express such things as possibility, probability, permission and obligation. They are also useful when giving instructions and rules. They are called “modal verbs”.

Modals are special verbs which behave very irregularly in English. We also use Modal verbs to do things like talking about ability and making requests.

What competences will you develop?

How much time will you need?

You will be able to complete block III in 12 hours, including the block revision, activities, products and self-evaluation.

Learning evidences

In block III you will complete the following products that will allow you to see the development of your competencies:

- Oral explanation of a recipe.
- Paragraph about the importance of following instructions or directions.
- Advices to solve identified problems in the class.
- Paragraph about the importance of regulations in society.
- Advice-giving brochure.
- Paragraph about giving advice.
- Brochure and oral presentation.

What do you know? (Previous knowledge and competencies)

Can you identify when someone is giving you instructions or orders? Is it easy to follow them? An instruction is detailed information telling how something should be done.

¿Te das cuenta cuando una persona te da instrucciones u órdenes? ¿Te es fácil seguirlas? Una instrucción es una información detallada que indica cómo debe hacerse una cosa.

Look at the images and think about some issues that are related to them.

For example:

Observa las imágenes y piensa en algunos temas relacionados con ellas. Por ejemplo:

- Do not arrive late! (home)
- Do your homework! (school)
- Stop! (street)
- Do not touch! (museum)

There are things that are not allowed and some that you can do with no consequences. Do you remember some of them? Write them down:

Existen cosas que no están permitidas y otras que puedes hacer sin que haya consecuencias.

¿Recuerdas algunas de estas? Escríbelas a continuación:

In addition, it is important to identify your level of proficiency in the competencies that you will develop in block III by answering the next questions. Check (X)

También es importante que identifiques cómo es tu desempeño actual en las competencias que desarrollarás en el bloque III. Para ello, contesta las siguientes preguntas marcando tu respuesta con una X.

	Siempre	A veces	Nunca
¿Aplicas distintas estrategias comunicativas según quienes sean tus interlocutores, el contexto en el que te encuentras y los objetivos que persigues?
¿Identificas las ideas clave en un texto o discurso oral e infieres conclusiones a partir de ellas?
¿Te comunicas en una segunda lengua en situaciones cotidianas?
¿Manejas las tecnologías de la información y la comunicación para obtener información y expresar ideas?
¿Aportas puntos de vista con apertura y consideras los de otras personas de manera reflexiva?
¿Dialogas y aprendes de personas con distintos puntos de vista y tradiciones culturales mediante la ubicación de tus propias circunstancias en un contexto más amplio?

If you answered most of them with “always” then your level of proficiency is high. If you answered most of them with “sometimes” or “never” then you will have to work harder on the achievement of those competencies.

Si la mayoría de tus respuestas fueron “siempre” significa que tu desempeño actual es alto; si la mayoría fueron “a veces” o “nunca” significa que tienes que trabajar con más empeño para desarrollar esas competencias.

Imperatives

Following instructions is important because it helps to save time and it aids in the safety of something or someone.

Following directions also helps you to learn things and in efficiency. The importance of instructions is so you will know what to do and to do it right.

Look at the following expressions:

- Watch out!
- Come here!
- Sit!
- Look out!
- Be quiet!
- Stop!

All of them are very common in many situations. They can be used in public places, school, work and at home.

There are others such as “right”, “left”, “straight” that are used when you are giving instructions to get to a place.

To give orders, warnings and instructions in english, we use the imperative form:

- Order: Be quiet
- Warning: Take care
- Instructions: Listen to me carefully

Imperative sentences can end with a period (.) or an exclamation point (!).

Following instructions and understanding rules

Adults do not usually give each other orders, unless they are in a position of authority. However, adults can give orders to children and to animals. Here are some orders you could give to your pet:

Sit!

Come here!

You can also use the Imperative to warn someone of danger. For example:

Watch out!, Don't cross!, Look out!

You can also give an advice using the Imperative. Look at this example:

Eat an apple. It is much better for you than a biscuit!

Modal verbs

The modal verbs include can, must, may, should, might, shall, would. They are used with other verbs to express ability, obligation, possibility, suggestions and so on. Modal verbs are unlike other verbs. They do not change their form (spelling) and they have no infinitive or participle (past/present). The modals must and can need substitute verbs to express obligation or ability in the different tenses.

Modals are auxiliary verbs. They do not need an additional auxiliary in negatives or questions. For example:

Must I come? (~~Do I must come?~~) or He shouldn't smoke (~~He doesn't should smoke~~).

Maybe you are wondering what the difference between them is.

Let's find out: all the auxiliary verbs except be, do and have are called modals. Unlike other auxiliary verbs, modals only exist in their helping form. They cannot act alone as the main verb in a sentence. Study Grammar Box 1.

Grammar Box 1 - Modal verbs
Modal	Example	Uses
Can	They can control their own budgets. We can't fix it. Can I smoke here? Can you help me?	Ability / Possibility Inability / Impossibility Asking for permission Request
Might	Your bag might be in the kitchen.	Possibility
May	May I have another cup of coffee? China may become a major economic power.	Asking for permission Future possibility
Must	We must say good-bye now. They mustn't disrupt the work more than necessary.	Necessity / Obligation Prohibition
Shall	Shall I help you?	Suggestion
Would	I would love to visit Cancun.	Unreal or imagined situations
Should	We should sort out this problem at once. I think we should check everything again. Profits should increase next year.	Saying what's right or correct Recommending action Uncertain prediction
Have to	I have to arrive at work at nine o'clock. You have to pass your exams.	Strong obligation Obligation necessary
Could	Could I use your computer? You could see a movie or go out for dinner. Pedro could go to jail.	Request Suggestion Possibility

5. I _____ believe that you failed your test!
shouldn't
6. I _____ afford that.
shouldn't
can't

Check your answers in the Answer Key.

Comprueba tus respuestas en la Clave de Respuestas.

Must: "Must" has two functions. First it expresses a strong belief. This belief is not based on fact, but rather on logic. Second, it expresses an obligation.

The negative of must is "must not" or the contraction "mustn't".

Example: My keys must be around here somewhere.

In this example "must" expresses a strong belief that is based on logic.

Example: I must climb Popocatepetl.

In this example “must” expresses the obligation to climb Popocatepetl that comes from an internal source (no one external to me is forcing me to do it).

Activity 9

Write 3 sentences using “must”.

Escribe 3 oraciones usando “must”.

1. _____.
2. _____.
3. _____.

Have to: “Have to” has several functions. First, it expresses a strong belief. This belief is not based on fact, but rather on logic. Second, it expresses an obligation. The source of this obligation is external (coming from your boss, the law, an authority). The negative of have to is “do not have to”.

Example: Maria has to win this race to advance to the next round.

In this example, “has to” expresses a strong belief that is based on logic.

Example: My mother says that I have to make my bed.

In this example “have to” expresses an obligation coming from an external source (my mother).

MODAL VERBS SHADES OF MODALITY

A modal verb is a type of auxiliary verb* that expresses possibility, necessity, obligation

*Auxiliary verbs are “helper verbs” used in combination with other verbs to assist in stating tone, tense, condition/state, voice or mood.

RULES TO REMEMBER

1. Most modal verbs cannot be used in past/future tenses.
2. When used in third person present tense modals do not have ‘-s’ ending.
3. Use “not” to make modals negative.

Closure Activity

How to eat healthy

Since the 1980s, with the introduction of processed food in the Mexican market, Mexico has had a new problem: obesity. There have been efforts to combat obesity in the country, with the federal government investing about 7% of its budget on various nutritional programs. Both public and private money has been spent on various campaigns aimed at modern eating habits.

In pairs research about the eating habits in your community. Look for the “Dish of Good Food” and create a brochure explaining what people should do to eat healthy. Give advice and recommendations. Use pictures and examples.

Make an oral presentation to your classmates and teacher. Discuss in small groups the importance of teaching adults and children to eat healthy.

En parejas, investiguen acerca de los hábitos alimenticios en tu comunidad. Busca el “Plato del Buen Comer” y elaboren un folleto explicando qué debería hacer la gente para comer sanamente. Den consejos y recomendaciones. Usen imágenes y ejemplos.

Hagan una presentación oral ante sus compañeros y su maestro. Discutan en pequeños grupos la importancia de enseñar a los adultos y a los niños a comer sanamente.

Criteria	0	1	2	3	4	5	N/A
1. An effective introduction on the theme is stated.
2. The purpose, objectives and main ideas are included in the presentation.
3. Presentation is organized and can be easily followed.
4. The speaker masters the theme or subject, by explaining the content properly, without making mistakes.
5. The ideas and arguments in the presentation are well grounded within the resources displayed, consulted or discussed in class.
6. An appropriate language is used, with, syntactic and grammatical accuracy.
7. The main ideas or presentation abstract is clear and appropriate.
8. The objectives or goals announced in the introduction are fulfilled.
9. The presentation is interesting and entertaining.
10. The presentation displays creativity.
11. Diction is clear and nicely toned, without fillers or barbarism.
12. Effective projection, adequate body language and audience management.
13. The speaker captures attention and interest of the audience and promotes its participations, depending on the case.
14. Effective use of technology, visual aids, role play or exercises, according to the subject.
15. The speaker respects the time assigned; not too extended, nor too brief.

At the end of the presentation, sum up the obtained points and verify your results on the next chart:

Score	Result
0 - 25 points	Presentation does not fulfill any of the requirements; it has no clarity on the theme or purpose; language does not match the subject, visual resources are not used and the audience shows no interest.
26 – 50 points	Presentation accomplishes some criteria; theme and purpose are clear, yet some ideas are not grounded or related; the audience is partially interested.
51 - 75 points	Presentation satisfies most of the requirements; the subject is clear and the goal is fulfilled. Verbal and body language are correct. The audience shows interest all the time.

How much time will you need?

You will be able to complete block IV in 12 hours, including the block revision, activities, products and self-evaluation.

Learning evidences

In block IV you will complete the following products that will allow you to see the development of your competencies:

- Short and long term plans comparative chart.
- Predictions about the future (speaking activity).
- Short text about the impact of your present actions in your future.
- Project to solve environmental problems in your community.

Block IV

Making plans for the future

What do you know? (Previous knowledge and competencies)

In order to talk about the future, it is important to be able to use verbs for present and past activities. Write a sentence in simple past and a sentence in present simple using each of the verbs from the next box.

Para hablar acerca del futuro, es necesario ser capaz de utilizar los verbos para describir actividades del presente y del pasado. Escribe una oración en pasado simple y una en presente simple utilizando cada uno de los verbos del siguiente recuadro.

Block IV

Making plans for the future

Can you make a prediction? What do you think block IV is about? Take a look at the Prediction Chart. In pairs, complete only “Know” and “Want” columns.

Once you finish block IV, come back to complete the rest of the chart and reflect on what you have learned.

¿Puedes hacer una predicción? ¿De qué piensas que trata el bloque IV? Observa la siguiente tabla. En parejas completan solamente las columnas “Conozco” y “Quiero”.

Cuando termines el bloque IV, completa la última columna y reflexiona sobre lo que has aprendido.

Prediction Chart
Know (What do you already know?)	Want (What do you want to know?)	Learned (What have you learned?)

Were you able to use verbs in simple past and simple present correctly? Was it easy or difficult to describe the previous pictures and answer the questions? Were you able to discuss your answers with your classmates? Was it useful to write about what you already know and what you want to know in block IV? Discuss the results of these activities with your teacher; it will be useful to focus on your strengths and opportunities.

¿Pudiste utilizar correctamente los verbos en pasado y en presente? ¿Te fue fácil o difícil describir las imágenes previas y contestar las preguntas al respecto? ¿Pudiste comentar con tus compañeros las respuestas a las preguntas? ¿Fue útil el plantear lo que ya conoces y lo que esperas conocer sobre el bloque IV? Comenta los resultados de estas actividades con tu profesor, te servirá para concentrarte en tus fortalezas y oportunidades.

In addition, it is important to identify your level of proficiency in the competencies that you will develop in block IV by answering the next questions. Check (X)

También es importante que identifiques cómo es tu desempeño actual en las competencias que desarrollarás en el bloque IV. Para ello, contesta las siguientes preguntas marcando tu respuesta con una X.

	Siempre	A veces	Nunca
¿Aplicas distintas estrategias comunicativas según quienes sean tus interlocutores, el contexto en el que te encuentras y los objetivos que persigues?
¿Identificas las ideas clave en un texto o discurso oral e infieres conclusiones a partir de ellas?
¿Te comunicas en una segunda lengua en situaciones cotidianas?
¿Manejas las tecnologías de la información y la comunicación para obtener información y expresar ideas?
¿Aportas puntos de vista con apertura y consideras los de otras personas de manera reflexiva?
¿Dialogas y aprendes de personas con distintos puntos de vista y tradiciones culturales mediante la ubicación de tus propias circunstancias en un contexto más amplio?

If you answered most of them with “always” then your level of proficiency is high. If you answered most of them with “sometimes” or “never” then you will have to work harder on the achievement of those competencies.

Si la mayoría de tus respuestas fueron “siempre” significa que tu desempeño actual es alto. Si la mayoría fueron “a veces” o “nunca” significa que tienes que trabajar con más empeño para desarrollar esas competencias.

Block IV

Making plans for the future

New Year's Eve: the night before a new year.

Let's begin

A prediction is when you say something that you think will happen in the future. A promise is an action that you make about something that you are going to do. Usually people in Mexico make promises in New Year's Eve.

Future plans - Be going to

Be going to and will are grammatical structures used to talk about future plans, predictions or promises. Be going to is used to talk about plans and intentions, is also used informally for making predictions. In Grammar Box 1 you can observe the grammatical rules for different uses of be going to. Remember that when we use verbs in infinitive form we do not add -ing or -ed.

Grammar Box 1
Time expressions
Future of going to is formed	Subject + am/are/is going to + verb in infinitive
Be going to
Affirmative	Negative
Subject + am/are/is going to + Verb infinitive .	Subject + am/are/is not going to + Verb infinitive .
I am going to play tomorrow. You are going to play tomorrow. He is going to play tomorrow. She is going to play tomorrow. It is going to play tomorrow. We are going to play tomorrow. They are going to play tomorrow.	I am not going to play tomorrow. You are not going to play tomorrow. He is not going to play tomorrow. She is not going to play tomorrow. It is not going to play tomorrow. We are not going to play tomorrow. They are not going to play tomorrow.
Interrogative: Yes/No questions
Am/Are/is + subject + going to + verb infinitive ?	Answers
Am I going to play tomorrow? Are you going to play tomorrow? Is he going to play tomorrow? Is she going to play tomorrow? Are we going to play tomorrow? Are they going to play tomorrow?	Yes, I am /No, I am not.

People from different places and different ages make plans. People consider different aspects of the future from short-term or long-term; to tomorrow's weather; to new technology in the future and how it will affect us. It is important to learn how to talk about plans; this may help you organize different goals.

A common error to watch out for is omitting the verb To Be.

Incorrect: we going to watch a movie.

Correct: we are going to watch a movie.

Time expressions are words used at the end or at the beginning of a sentence. In block II, you learned some time expressions mostly used for actions in the past. In Grammar Box 2, you will find some time expressions used for the future.

Grammar Box 2
Time Expressions used for the future
Tomorrow Tonight Next Monday/week/month/summer/year In an hour Soon In the near future Way off in the future Eventually This evening/summer Later this evening Tuesday afternoon	Look at the following examples: Next week I am going to Chiapas. I am going to Chiapas next week. This summer I am going to study english. I am going to study english this summer.

Auxiliary will - Predictions

Another grammar structure used to talk about the future time is will. Will is an alternative for going to when making predictions. Will is a little more formal than going to for predictions. Will is also used to talk about decisions made at the moment of speaking. In a daily conversation will is generally used in contracted form. Using the full form usually makes the speaker sound more formal. In Grammar Box 3 you can see the use of will for predictions.

Grammar Box 3
Use of Will for predictions
Affirmative Form Subject + will + verb in base form	Negative Form Subject + will not + verb in base form
I will play tomorrow. You will play tomorrow. He will play tomorrow. She will play tomorrow. It will play tomorrow. They will play tomorrow. We will play tomorrow.	I will not play tomorrow. You will not play tomorrow. He will not play tomorrow. She will not play tomorrow. It will not play tomorrow. They will not play tomorrow. We will not play tomorrow.
Contracted Form 'll	Contracted Negative Form won't
I 'll play tomorrow. You 'll play tomorrow. He 'll play tomorrow. She 'll play tomorrow. It 'll play tomorrow. We 'll play tomorrow. They 'll play tomorrow.	I won't play tomorrow. The Sources of Renewable Energy

Renewable power is a very important topic today. Using a renewable source of electricity it will help you to save a lot of money and it will also help make this Earth a better place to live in. Renewable energy is a form of electricity that doesn't use the non-renewable natural resources of the Earth. Non-renewable sources of energy are resources such as fossil fuels like oil, natural gas, coal, nuclear, wood, etc.

Alternative energy sources such as wind, solar, hydro, and geothermal are all examples of renewable power. You can use as much sunlight as you want, but the sun will keep on shining and provide us with more energy to use. If we use the wind or the water to make the turbines rotate, we can always get more wind blowing or water flowing, and they never get used up.

Sources like fossil fuels and other non-renewable sources often cause heavy pollution, causing trouble for the Earth, making it dirty and polluted. The ecology gets affected when a resource gets used up. It is also important to preserve energy by switching off appliances and lights when not being used.

(Article adapted from: <http://EzineArticles.com/2368322>).

Sources: original or first-hand material.

Renewable energy: a type of energy that uses alternative resources.

Geothermal: heat from the Earth.

Appliances: electrical things we use at home.

Make sure you use going to, will and time expressions to talk about the possible effects of the environmental problem and the possible solutions.

Present your project to your teacher.

Environmental: referring to the surroundings or conditions in which a person, animal, or plant lives.

Deforestation: destruction of large areas of forest.

Proyecto

¿Qué problemas ambientales identificas en tu comunidad?

En pequeños grupos investiga cómo podrían resolver los problemas ambientales en tu comunidad. Consideren los siguientes puntos en tu investigación

- Describan el problema ambiental más importante (contaminación del agua o del aire, problemas de basura, contaminación química, deforestación.)
- ¿Cómo está afectando ese problema ambiental a su comunidad?
- ¿Qué pasará si esta situación no cambia?
- ¿Qué propuesta pueden hacer a su comunidad para ayudarle a resolver ese problema ambiental? Describe detalladamente.

Asegúrense de usar going to, will y las expresiones de tiempo para comentar los posibles efectos del problema ambiental así como sus posibles soluciones.

Presenten su proyecto a su maestro.

Optional

Take it further:

You can create posters to promote possible solutions for the environmental problems found in your community.

Si lo deseas:

Puedes elaborar carteles para promover posibles soluciones a problemas ambientales identificados en tu comunidad.

Cierre del bloque IV

Reflexiona sobre lo aprendido

Para valorar el nivel de avance que has logrado en el bloque IV es importante que completes la siguiente tabla de manera consciente y honesta. Pon una X en la casilla correspondiente.

Interpretación del nivel de avance:

100 - 90% = Lo logré de manera independiente

89 - 70% = Requerí apoyo para construir el aprendizaje

69 - 50% = Fue difícil el proceso de aprendizaje y sólo lo logré parcialmente

49% o menos = No logré el aprendizaje.

Contenidos curriculares		Nivel de avance
		100-90%	89-70%	69-50%	49% o menos
Conceptuales	Conoces las características, diferencias y usos de “will” y “be going to”.

Answer key

Block I. Comparing people, objects and places

Dear diary.

I am having fun in Guanajuato. I have new friends, Alicia is the nicest girl in our group and Pedro is the funniest, he makes me laugh every day with his jokes. Guanajuato is a beautiful colonial city. The shoes and jackets are very cheap. I enjoy walking down the streets of Guanajuato while listening to the estudiantina. The estudiantina plays cheerful music. One of the things I want to see is the Museum of the Mummies. This museum is one of the most interesting museums in the world and probably the scariest of them all!

Assistant: Hello. Can I help you?

Laura: Yes, please.

You have the most beautiful dress in the window.

Assistant: This one?

Laura: Yes. Can I try it on, please?

Assistant: Yes, what size are you?

Laura: Medium, I think.

Assistant: Here, try it on.

Appendix 1

Laura: Oh. It doesn't fit. It is very big. Have you got a smaller one?

Assistant: Sorry, that is the smallest size. What about this one? Do you want to try it on?

Laura: No, I don't like it in black.

Assistant: Look at this one. The color is nicer and it is less expensive than the black one.

Laura: Ok, How does it look?

Assistant: Great! It looks very pretty.

Laura: How much does it cost?

Assistant: It cost $200 pesos. It's the cheapest dress in this shop.

Laura: Great! I will take it. Can I pay it by credit card?

Assistant: Yes, you can pay over there.

Laura: Thank you very much.

Easy Origami Bee

1. Start with a square sheet of paper that is yellow on one side and white on the back side. You must cut it in half along the diagonal to get an isosceles triangle. You can also use a square sheet of paper, but starting with a triangle allows the wings to be a different color compared to the body of the bee.
2. You should fold it in half and unfold.
3. Fold up the two bottom corners so the corners must meet at the peak of the triangle.
4. Fold the two corners back down, except fold them at a bit of an angle so the corners should be slightly away from one another like the wings of a bug.
5. Fold down the top of the triangle; don't fold down exactly in half. You should leave a small gap as shown. Unfold it.
6. Fold down the top section of the triangle into thirds. Then fold down once more along the crease made above.
7. You have to fold back the left & right sides of the model to form the body of the bee.
8. You must fold the tips of the wings a little. It must not be too pointy.
9. You can leave it like this, or you can use a marker to color the head black and put stripes across the bee's back.
